

56 Muscatine County Delegates To Attend Democratic Convention

Muscatine County will send 56 delegates to the Democratic State Presidential Convention Friday evening and Saturday in Des Moines. The Muscatine delegates will join more than 6000 delegates and alternates, plus around 200 junior delegates and hundreds of interested spectators.

Three nationally known Democrats will speak at the dinner preceding Friday night's congressional district caucuses, beginning at 5 p.m. near the Livestock Pavilion at the State Fair Grounds. The speakers will be U.S. Senator Walter Mondale of Minnesota, representing Vice President Humphrey; U.S. Senator Edward Kennedy of Massachusetts, representing his brother, U.S. Senator Robert Kennedy; and Zolton Ferency, former Michigan Democratic Chairman and candidate for Governor in 1966, representing Senator Eugene McCarthy. The public is invited to join Democrats to hear the speakers at the dinner; tickets will be $10 each.

The seven district caucuses will begin at 8:30 p.m. Friday and will reconvene at 9 a.m. Saturday to formalize business. The district caucuses will select 30 of the state's 52 delegates to the national convention, and selections will be confirmed at the state convention, which will open at 11 a.m. Saturday at Veterans Auditorium.

Gov. Harold Hughes will be keynote speaker at the convention, and following his remarks will be nomination of the national committeeman and committeewoman, and presentation of reports of other convention committees, including the nominating committee's recommendations for selection of the 22 delegates-at-large to the national convention.

There will be 4,857 delegates at the state convention, to cast 3,093 votes. Muscatine County's 56 delegates will have one-half vote apiece.

The 52 delegates chosen to the national convention will cast 46 votes. Under the Iowa Democratic Party Constitution, the delegates cannot go to the national convention bound to any presidential candidate.

The incumbent national committeeman is Donald J. Mitchell of Fort Dodge, who is not seeking re-election; and the incumbent committeewoman is Mrs. Alberta Kelly of Nichols, who has not yet announced her intentions. Committee members serve four-year terms. Both Mitchell and Mrs. Kelly were elected in 1962, and re-elected in 1966, 1960, and 1964.

Mrs. Elizabeth Richards of Red Oak has formally announced her candidacy for committeewoman, and Lt. Gov. Robert Fulton has indicated interest in the committeeman post.

The 28 delegates nominated at the April 19 county convention by the convention committee were:

Ed Hoffbauer, Fulton; Francis Rinnert, Montpelier; Lawrence Duffee, Moscow; Richard Singleton, Orono; Albert Kelly, Pike; Kenneth Duncan, 76 Township; Betty McMahon, Sweetland; Harold Keele and Scott M. Mahon, Wapsie; F.E. Fair, T.K. Boyle and W.E. Leimig, Wilton; Katherine McFadden, Robert Huber, Albert Gaidies, Sister Margaret Molley and Fred Karre, Muscatine 1st Ward; Van Snyder, Florence Ross and Tom Manton, Muscatine 2nd Ward; Mrs. Reita Michalski and Robert Brady, 3rd Ward; James Flor, Tom Kremer and James Stelzner, 4th Ward; John Duncan, John A. Otto and Wesley R. Rowe, 5th Ward.

The 28 delegates nominated from the floor at the county convention were:

Earl Deahr and Darwin Soderman, Fruitland; Mrs. Ed Hoffbauer and Mrs. Frances Rinnert, Fulton; Fern Duffee, Moscow; Clifton Reese, Orono; Burton Mills, Pike; Maurice Furlong, 76 Township; Roger Kretschmar, Sweetland; John Casey and Ken Donnelly, Wapsie; Margaret Blanchard, Leo Maurer and Frank Fair, Wilton;

Pat Keough, Louise Deahr, Jim Fuller, Norbert Beckey and Richard Hebert, Muscatine 1st Ward; George Hart, Katherine Paetz and Patricia French, 2nd Ward; H. Phillip Auffrey and Andrew Tobias, 3rd Ward; Joseph Sparks, Sister Irene Munoz and George Rotter, 4th Ward; Jerome Conway, Norma Kronefeldt and Rochelle Conway, 5th Ward.

Tax Accountants Discuss Exemptions in Iowa Tax Bill

John E. Rex, Muscatine county auditor, was the guest speaker Wednesday evening at the sixth district meeting of the Accountants Association of Iowa, held in Muscatine.

Rex outlined the fundamentals of the $2,500 exemption on assessed valuation of merchandise inventory and equipment granted each commercial, farm, and industrial taxpayer under the tax bill enacted by the Iowa Legislature in the 1967 general assembly.

Special emphasis was given to the new and unusual special additional homestead tax credit available to homeowners over 65 years of age as set out in the tax bill.

An alert to accounting practitioners was sounded by local tax consultant Mike Goddard, that in a current survey of local homeowners over the age of 65 (the Code states age 65 before midnight on Dec. 31 of the year immediately preceding the year of the tax levy) very few were aware of this new "break" for persons over 65.

Woman Fined After Taking Store Cash

A woman from Chicago, Joyce Wilson, was fined $25 and costs in justice court by Justice Ray L. Pace on Wednesday evening as the result of a complaint to police that she took several $20 bills from a cash register at a Muscatine grocery.

Police received a call at 6:30 p.m. from employees at the Sun Mart store, Mulberry Avenue, that Joyce Wilson grabbed a handful of money from a cash register, but was seen by a clerk.

The Negro woman was with two friends, another woman and a man, when the incident happened said Pace. She returned the money at the prompting of the clerk.

The three people then left the store, and police later made the arrest in another part of Muscatine.

A charge of disturbing the peace was filed, and the fine was paid. The woman testified that she and her friends were on their way to Burlington, and that a death had occurred in the family.

Kenneth Distelhof of Davenport, director of District 6 of the Accountants Association of Iowa, presided over the meeting held at The Elms.

Plans were made for the annual Tax Seminar of the Iowa Association to be held at Hotel Savery in Des Moines on November 19-21. A special district seminar on the tax law revision was arranged for Sept. 4, at a meeting place to be announced later.

Special attention will be given at this meeting to Senator Jack Miller's recommendation to the people of Iowa to have an Iowa state income tax return in card form based on a percentage of the federal income tax. Senator Miller, as lecturer for many years at the association's annual tax seminars, has stressed the logic of such tax legislation for the state of Iowa.

Special guests at the meeting included Sam Levin of Des Moines, editor of the association's publication, The Iowa Accountant, and other district directors, past presidents and directors.

Housing Study Of Low-Income Families Made

A special study committee appointed by Mayor E. S. Burns met on Wednesday evening to draw up a map that will show inadequate housing areas used by low-income families.

The committee was appointed by the Mayor at a meeting of the city council earlier this year, with co-chairmen James Tracy and Carl Egger in charge.

Conditions in Muscatine which include both inadequate housing and low-income tenants are being defined by the committee. When the map is completed it will be shown to the city council.

If needs in the community are determined to be great enough, another committee will be appointed to take over where this one leaves off, to initiate community action.

Egger said that the present committee, "Exact Needs Committee," is working from a list of street addresses of low-income families as defined by the Office of Economic Opportunity, Iowa East Central Train.
